On 12th November I was 10 weeks old and I am growing rather quickly. I'm getting bigger and I now ask to go outside when I feel an accident is about to happen....this is apparently good stuff...that's what my new family keep saying...what do they know eh?

• I still love socialising and meeting new friends.

• I love playing with "ragger"...do you?

Thank you for reading, and please look out for my next TESseMail soon.

Woof, Tess x
